Standard shapes and dimensions for advertisements are displayed on the following pages. Note that the dimensions take into account page margins and allow for space between columns.

Member Notices

CFC members may advertise personal items for sale in Pipeline. This is intended solely as a service to CFC members seeking to sell or buy privately owned musical instruments, music accessories, books, and sheet music. This service is limited to the advertising of goods; members may not advertise services. The cost is $5 per advertisement; advertisements may include more than one item offered for sale.

There is no charge for listing stolen instruments.

Member advertisements will appear in one issue only and will be published in the earliest possible issue after receipt by the editor.
